

PAGEANT TO BE GIVEN TOMORROW NIGHT

"Phyllis Wheatley," Bicentennial
Offering, Scheduled at Armstrong High.

"Phyllis Wheatley," a Bicentennial pageant, written by Mary Church Terrell, will be presented in the auditorium of Armstrong High School tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. The performance will be given under the auspices of a committee of the District Bicentennial Commission.

Phyllis Wheatley, though born in slavery, became a poet of such note, as to attract the attention of George Washington, who wrote her a letter commending her "poetic talents" and "elegant lines."
